About Rhiannon

I am a divorce consultant and coach, and the owner and founder of Rhiannon Ford Divorce Consultancy.

I have over 25 years' experience of working with clients going through separation and divorce. This has included my work as a family law solicitor for several years before starting my divorce consultancy service in 2010.

My focus is to support and guide people while they navigate through this challenging time in their lives, saving them time, money and stress.

My role complements that of your solicitor and we can work together as a team to support you throughout your divorce.
